Provisional President, Sharing Fate of Predecessors, Must Fight or Take Flight.

WILSON READY TO ACT.

President Is Getting all the Facts as to Condition Below Rio Grande.

By Samuel M. Williams. (Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, July 21.-The Huerta Government in Mexico is on the verge of took the reigns of Dias and Madero is now rapidly approaching the provisional government of the new dictator. It days when Huerta will have to get steam up on the special train in waiting for flight of deposed Presidents and take the Vera Crus route for Paris. There is speculation, however, whether Huerta will run as did Dias or stand de-frantly as did Madero until killed. General Swift, who promised a decision intly as did Madero until killed.

Advices received to-day in Washington and credited in highest circles give the news that the Huerta Government cannot last long. The conditions of chaos and anarchy existing in unfortunate Mexico are centring rapidly toward another catastrophe. What will happen when Huerta falls no one ventures to predict. It may mean a period of even worse confusion, if such a thing is possible.

There seems to be no specially strong man to selse the reins of Government in Mexico City. No one individual stands out as leader of united opposition to the dictator. Huerta's fall, when it does come, will be the result not of one scattered throughout the country. WILSON GETTING REAL FACTS ON CONDITIONS.
